

CHILDREN'S ONLINE PRIVACY PROTECTION ACT (COPPA) POLICY

OPERATIONAL POLICY

Wings Financial Credit Union (Wings) recognizes its responsibility to protect the privacy of our youngest members. Wings is committed to protecting our young members and other visitors as they visit our kids section of our website.

It is the intent of Wings to comply with the Children's Online Privacy Act (COPPA) that governs and protects the privacy of our youngest members.

For purposes of this policy, our youngest members are children under the age of 13.

Guidelines

Wings may collect information on domain names, dates and times of visits, and number of page views. This information contains no personal information. It will only be used to keep track of usage of our site, and it will help Wings to continue to improve the overall value of our site. Visitor information is never sold, given, or discussed with third parties.

If young members send us email with their personal information to answer a quiz, submit a story, send a recipe, etc., we will respond to their email as appropriate. We may keep their email address for the purpose of sending information about the kids' section of our website or about Wings.

We will not sell, give, or share their personal information to/with any third party vendor or any other organization. We will not condition their participation in an activity on the provision of more personal information than is necessary for our young members to participate in the activity.

For those parent(s) of a child whom has sent emails to Wings regarding items posted to our website, they will have the right to review the information their child has sent to Wings. If we collect a child's personal information for purposes of responding more than once to a specific request from the child, the parent(s) have the right to refuse to permit further contact with their child. In addition, they can also require that Wings delete their child's information.

Wings is committed to protecting our youngest members and will comply with all COPPA notice requirements.

Revised 06/30/13